

CHANGES TO ROGERS RANKING in 2019

Please note that there are important changes in the Ranking Points effective 1st Jan 2019.
Please check the Ranking tables on <http://rogersrankings.ca/#/> to see how they affect you.

Dear Competitor/Parent,

The purpose of this document is to make you aware of the changes in Rogers Rankings for Players across Canada, which will come in effect on January 1, 2019. The two primary changes are as follows:

- Conversion of ATP/WTA/ITF (Junior)/ITF (Transition Tour) to Rogers Rankings – There have been a host of changes in the PRO tour (ATP/WTA) with respect to Challenger and Futures tournaments. There have also been changes to the point structure of the ITF Junior tournaments. In addition to this the ITF is launching a new “Transition Tour” in 2019. Tennis Canada has developed a new “Conversion Chart” to align Rogers Rankings with all these changes at the international level.

Ranking Equivalency – Starting in 2019 Rogers Ranking will follow the following conversion chart to award points to our Canadian players competing on the PRO(ATP/WTA) and ITF (Junior/Transition) circuits.

Tour Type "1" Point (MALE)	ATP	Mens Transition Tour	ITF (Junior Boys)	Tour Type "1" Point (FEMALE)	WTA	Womens Transition Tour	ITF (Junior Girls)
JUNIOR Rogers Ranking (Equivalent points)	7500	600	150	JUNIOR Rogers Ranking (Equivalent points)	2500	300	200
OPEN Rogers Ranking (Equivalent points)	1000	80	NA	OPEN Rogers Ranking (Equivalent points)	1000	40	NA

- Recognizing Tennis Europe and USTA Junior Events – Tennis Canada will recognize a few select junior tournaments from Tennis Europe and USTA. This means that Canadians playing in these events will get Ranking points on their Junior Rogers Rankings. The events and the ranking points are as follows:

Event Level	Age Cat	Boys	Girls
Tennis Europe Category 1	U16	10000	10000
Tennis Europe Category 1	U14	5200	7400
